

Logistics

Logistics Volunteers essentially provide support to responders from behind the scenes and has the potential to become a valuable asset. The Logistics Volunteer will provide non-operational support at the level of his/her training. Logistics Volunteers may be assigned to provide services including supplies, fueling, feeding and rehab in areas located in the “cold” zone of an incident.