

Wildland Firefighter

Wildland Firefighter Volunteers perform firefighting activities in combating, extinguishing, preventing Wildland fires and other related work activities connected with the response to emergency and other incidents; operates and maintains firefighting and rescue equipment; maintains fire stations; and performs related work as required. Wildland Firefighter Volunteers have the opportunity to be trained as a Fire Equipment Operator.